
Alexandria/Arlington
Regional Workforce Council
&
Our American Job Centers

About Us

The Alexandria/Arlington Regional Workforce System helps drive equitable economic growth in the City of Alexandria and Arlington County by implementing an effective, efficient, and inclusive workforce ecosystem.

Our Members

Alexandria/Arlington Region Partners

- Alexandria/Arlington Regional Workforce Council
- Alexandria City Workforce Development Center & Arlington Employment Center
 - WIOA Title I Adults
 - WIOA Dislocated Workers
 - WIOA Youth
 - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families
 - Employment and Training Activities by Department of Housing and Urban Development
- Alexandria City & Arlington Public Schools and Northern Virginia Community College
 - Adult Education and Literacy
 - Career and Technical Education Programs
- Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services
 - Vocational Rehabilitation
- Virginia Employment Commission
 - Wagner-Peyser
 - Trade Adjustment Assistance
 - Jobs for Veterans State Grants Programs
 - State Unemployment Compensation
- Senior Community Service Employment Program

Services for Job Seekers

- Computers, internet, copiers, scanners, and fax machine for your job search
- Resume building software and Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Access tutorials
- Search available jobs and post your resume on our job boards
- On-site hiring events and job fair information
- Job search, basic professional skills, resume writing, and social media workshops
- Career counseling, assessment, and training services
- Employment services for Veterans
- Access to English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) classes
- Accommodations and assistance for people living with disabilities

Please Visit Our Centers

- Please visit our Virginia Career Works/American Job Centers:
 - Alexandria City: <https://www.alexandriava.gov/WorkforceDevelopment>

- Arlington County: <https://aec.arlingtonva.us/>

Questions, please contact David Remick at Dremick@arlingtonva.us.

